PLACES OF INTEREST

TO STRANGERS WHO VISIT THE
"PARIS OF AMERICA."

The Cincinnati Art Museum—Beautiful

Clifton—Her Bridge—Barnet Woods

Park—Zoological Garden.

No one who visits the "Paris of America"

this summer will be satisfied in merely "doing" the Centennial Exposition—great as it will be. They will have a desire to look about the city and see the various objects of interest it contains. It is a rich field for sightseers. It contains objects of interest that deserve

a special journey, and the millions of strangers who go there to see the result of one hundred years of civilization, as exemplified in the exhibits at the Centennial, will take home with them pleasant recollections of the few hours spent in visiting these places.

Among the many objects of interest

none has greater claim upon one's time and attention than the

CINCINNATI ART MUSEUM.

It is located in Eden Park, on a high bluff overlooking the Deer Creek valley, and forms a prominent picture in the eastern landscape. A sense of the importance of having permanent buildings

in which to place the many art treasures

of Cincinnati, caused to be incorporated in 1870 a Women's Art Museum Association, with power to receive and hold gifts for such a building and contents. Several thousand dollars were realized by lectures,

art exhibitions, bequests and donations

and the prospects for establishing a permanent building were small until one of the city's generous millionaires (the late Charles W. West) came forward with a donation of $150,000, upon condition that the officers raise a like sum. This was done at once, and finally the enterprise was placed upon a solid footing by a further bequest from Mr. West of $150,000 as an endowment fund.

THE BRIDGES.

Three immense structures span the Ohio, and a fourth is contemplated. The most notable one is the suspension bridge which has the largest single span of its class in the world. The distance between towers is 1,057 feet. It is thirty-five feet wide and contains two ways for pedestrians, two carriage ways and a double track for street cars. The bridge weighs 2,000,000 pounds, and the total length of the bridge is 2,332 feet.

CLIFFTOP.

Close to Burnet Woods Park, is an amazingly beautiful cliff, an almost continuous landscape garden, beautifully landscaped with hill and dale, and containing the most elegant residences in the country. The village gets its name from

Clifton farm, a tract of land of about

4,200 acres, and the population does not exceed 1,500. It has twenty-two miles of venues, lined with fine shade trees, and the planting of these trees is continued from year to year. There is no more beautiful drive on earth than can be found in this sylvan retreat.

SPRING GROVE CEMETERY.

A city of the dead, contains 600

acres of the most beautiful improved ground, is the largest cemetery in the United States, and has over 37,000 interments. It is the most picturesque and magnificent burying ground in the country.

It is charmingly landscaped and beautifully laid out with far-stretching lawns,

shrubs, miniature lakes and shrubbery,

and ornamented with statuary, fountains, chapels, vaults and statues. The 100 owners aggregate fully ten thousand.

THE "2000" GARDEN.

With its sixty-six acres of beautifully improved ground and nearly one thousand specimens of animals and birds, is a great resort for strangers. The buildings are as costly and substantial as any in the United States, and since their inauguration, in 1873, over $300,000 have been expended upon them.

BURNET WOODS PARK.

A beautiful spot to visit. It lies to the north of the city, about two miles from

Fountain Square, and contains 103

acres, with boat-house and other accessories. Free open air concerts are given here each week in spring and summer, the funds having been provided by an endowment of $50,000, made by Hon. William S. Groesbeck.

On the above are but a few of the hundreds of interesting places to visit, and gives but a faint conception of the many public works that have cost millions of dollars, and all of which are worthy of a visit.

Don't put it off any longer but just

come around and take the KENTUCK-

IAN for a year.

GENERAL NEWS.

Jos. W. Drexel the head of a well-known banking firm of New York,

is dead.

Dr. Harry Winn of Cincinnati has been arrested charged with murder,

a dead infant having been found in his valise.

Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Dakota

had heavy snow storms on the 25th,

and for a time all travel was abandoned.

S. Redfield, a wealthy business man of Philadelphia, committed suicide, by opening one of the arteries

in his arm.

Mrs. Joseph Parker, of Parkersburg Va., while demented, saturated her clothing with coal oil, set fire to it and burned to death.

A St. Louis pork packer confesses that he got sick with cholera, was often cut up and packed in slaughtering houses to be sold to the public.

Gen'l. Lester B. Faulkner, of Utica

New York, has been indicted for embezzling $150,000, from a National bank, of which his brother was President.

The ice gorges in the Missouri river are causing much anxiety, and the present conditions are almost identical with those preceding the great floods of 1882.

The remains of a man has been found near St. Paul, Minn., with a bullet hole through his head, which answer to the description of Tascot

the Snell murderer.

The escape of a bear from the stage

caused quite a panic in a Louisville

theatre, and a dozen or more persons were knocked down and trampled upon in trying to escape.

F. W. Rice, one of the photographers who has been swindling the people of Memphis for the past two months, has been arrested on a bench warrant, and is now in jail.

The heavy rain storms last week

caused a terrible land slide at Kansas

City, which threatens great injury to property in the vicinity. The residents were compelled to flee for their lives.

The party of Louisville gentlemen

who have been working to develop lead mines near Georgetown Ky.,

have discovered such rich veins of silver and intend shortly to begin extensive operations in their newly discovered bonanza.

Leo Weitz, formerly a member of the Board of Public Works, of Ohio,

was for a long time head gardener to Emperor William, and possesses a valuable method which his distinguished patron personally pinned upon his breast.

Gen. Moore, Commander of the Salvation Army in America, has arrived at Plymouth, Mass., to superintend the reformation of the new corps

of Salvationists there who rebelled

and set up as an independent body.

The steamship Intrepid, from

Gibraltar for New York, has been de-laid at quarantine with a case of small pox in the steerage. The disease attacked thirteen other steerage passengers, and the vessel will probably be kept in the lower bay for several days.

A man named McGraham, an engineer on the Nashville, Chattanooga

& St. Louis Road, was sabaged

and robbed of $25 in the Cincinnati

Southern freight yards, Chattanooga,

after which he was laid across the railroad track to be run over by a train. He recovered consciousness

in time to save his life.

Charles F. Stain, who gave the information that led to the arrest of the murderer, the cashier (Barrow) of

the Dexter Bank at Augusta, Me.,

made a full confession, in which he implicated his father and Oliver

Cromwell in the Messenger murder, committed at Norfolk, Mass.

There is at last some indication that the people of the counties of West

Virginia and Kentucky lying along the Big Sandy River will be released from the domination of the band of robbers, murderers and outlaws

which has ranged up and down the country over an area of more than 100

square miles during the past eighteen months.

The preliminary trial of Jim Day

Frank Powell, David Roney and Sam

Rodden of the burning of a negro named Jeff Curry, has been commenced. The evidence against them was so strong that they were committed to jail without bail to await the action of the grand jury. This is the first time in the history of the state that white men were arrested and convicted for lynching a negro.

A queer tale comes from Perry county, Tenn. A man named Williamson stole a hog from a butcher and made off with it. Before he reached home he had to cross a fence,

and it being too high he threw the hog before him. He had failed to take out the gammon stick and it caught

The Tennessee Press Association will meet in Memphis Apr. 19th.

Queen Victoria's race is almost run, and it is said she is losing her mind.

Dr. Talmage, the Brooklyn Divine, lectured at the Moody Tabernacle in Louisville, Monday night, to five thousand people.

Hon. Henry Burnett, of Paducah, is spoken of as one of the delegates at large, to the Democratic State Convention at St. Louis.

We have just added the Daily Democrat, Bowling Green, to our list, and it is quite a spicy paper of which that city should feel proud.

The Chicago News says down in Kentucky they call a state treasurer "honest" if he doesn't take the safe when he starts for Canada.

Congressman Washington is still bending his efforts toward the removal of Dodge, the statistician, and should he succeed the agriculturalists will appreciate him all the more.

Yesterday was the day set for the trial of Tate. Of course it will be a mere matter of form you know, but it takes some little time to impeach an officer, and especially "clever fellows."

Until acting Treasurer Sharpe has given bond and assumed the duties of the office, the Committee to investigate the affairs of the Treasury will not proceed further with their investigations.

The bill introduced in Congress asking an appropriation of $5,000 to defray the funeral expenses of the late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court has passed and been signed by the President.

The International Council of Women met in Washington this week. Several hundred delegates were in attendance, and Mrs. Stanton says a revolution will ensue, if the sisters are not allowed to vote.

Capt. Chas. W. C. Norwood, who distinguished himself in the war of 1812, serving in the same company with Davy Crockett, died at his residence near Knoxville, Tenn., Tuesday. He was 95 years old.

Mrs. Frank Leslie denies the fact that she intends to marry, and says she declines, on an average, at least two offers every day of her life. It is such a bore that she keeps a letter written, and the same form suffices for all.

Chicago has just incorporated a new telephone company with a capital—on paper—of $18,000,000, and the telephone war is probably not yet over. The Bell Company will be plucked now, if possible.

Dick Tate must have expected to run for office again as he had laid in one hundred barrels of whisky. He evidently expected prohibition to carry in the State, when he would have plenty on hand to supply the campaign demand.

Tampa, Florida has an obliging postmaster. For the convenience of the business men, the office is kept open until midnight, so that the northern mail which arrives at night can be delivered. Hopkinsville's postmaster doesn't think like his southern brother.

In this issue appears an article from the Courier-Journal headed "Courtesy or Cowardice," which presents some very strong facts, that should be heeded by legislators. Our Legislatures seem to be all policy and but little principle. Our representatives are sent to represent the people and not each other.

The Legislature may pass the bill to punish wife beaters, but we venture the assertion that there will not be enough convictions under the law to pay for the trouble of its passage. About nine out of every ten wives would do all in their power to shield their brutal husbands, and could not stand to have them whipped. The law is a good one if such brutes could be brought to justice.

The Owensboro Messenger won the McIntyre suit for libel, Saturday, the jury agreeing that the paper had published facts. This thing of robbing newspapers of $50,000 on account of "libelous facts" published, does not seem to be encouraged by the people who are served by the papers, which is exactly as it should be, for when independent journalism is properly appreciated, better results will still follow, and many things, yet covered up will be turned up to the public gaze.

As long as Auditor Hewitt stands his ground and courts investigation of his books, the State press should not be too hasty in bringing false accusations to bear upon him. Were he in any way responsible for Tate's defection he too would have been probably missing. It is true Tate was believed to be honest, but the time has now come for the people to know and not believe, and as Auditor Hewitt is making a manly stand, he should not be too severely dealt with until worse things than are now known are proven. There is not one in a thousand who would not have believed just as Auditor Hewitt did that as long as his and Tate's books balanced that the money was on hand.

CONGRESSIONAL.

THE RACE AS NOW MADE UP BETWEEN MESSRS. ELLIS AND POWELL.

The KENTUCKIAN as yet has had nothing to say about the race for Congress, but as other papers in the district have taken a stand, and seeing no good to arise from delay, it will venture its selection to-day, of the man who should represent the Second District in the next Congress. The man who is to be supported by the KENTUCKIAN is one that not only a single county, or a district should feel proud, but one that the entire State will admit to be not only capable, but deserving of any honor given him. The time has come when no voter should be blinded by prejudice or policy, but should examine carefully into the real merits of the man who is to receive his support, and support only a man who will properly represent the people, and devote his time to their best interests. Our choice is a man in whose countenance you can read honesty of purpose, sincerity of friendship, and unbounded principle; and who will never give you cause to regret the vote you cast for him. He is a man who will not shake a workingman's hand for policy before an election, and refuse it afterward simply because he has carried his purpose. He is a man whose ambition has led him to the place where he now stands, and that same ambition is what prompts him to request a seat in the next Congress, where he will reflect credit upon himself and the district. The gentleman to whom we refer is Capt. W. T. Ellis, of Daviess county, who now has so many followers in Christian and which number is increasing every day.

A Washington special says Miss Clara Barton, Pres. of the American Red Cross Society, and Mr. Hubbell, Field Agent, have just returned from Mount Vernon, Illinois, where Miss Barton rendered great assistance to the tornado sufferers. She reached there ten days after the disaster, and found that contributions had nearly ceased coming in. She immediately sent out a telegraphic notice stating the condition of the people and asking for aid, which was nobly responded to. The relief fund now amounts to nearly one hundred thousand dollars. Miss Barton spoke of the people of Mount Vernon in the highest terms. She says they are a brave and courageous people. When she left there every man and boy was at work cleaning brick, repairing buildings or building new structures. A branch of the Red Cross Society has been organized there.

Reader, did you ever pause for a moment to consider the vast amount of reading matter you get in a single copy of the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN which costs you less than 2 cents a copy? If you have not, do so and we think you will be warranted in coming right along and contributing two dollars more for a yearly supply, to be given in broken doses, twice a week—Tuesdays and Fridays, and paper stopped when out, unless otherwise ordered. You actually get more local, editorial and general news than from any other paper published in this part of the State, and while our list is rapidly increasing, come forward if you are not already a subscriber, and let us enroll your name on it, thus adding to the mighty number.

Charles J. Wilson, an Ohio editor, was found in a room Saturday night with a pistol shot through his temple. He was sent by his own hand into eternity. He had $3 in money on his person, and the surprise is that an editor with so much money could be so rash and foolish as to kill himself. We know some editors, who, if they could carry three dollars around in their pocket, would not let their children associate with other people's children.—Bowling Green Democrat.

Congressman Wm. L. Scott told a friend some time ago that the only use he had for eating was to give him a chance to smoke a cigar afterwards. This is strikingly like an expression attributed to the late President Buchanan, who said he liked a glass of whiskey because it made the ice-water taste so good.—Nashville American.

A poor man in Indiana while preparing an onion bed, accidentally dug up $12,000 which was claimed by the farm owner of the place, having been buried by a miserly sister many years ago. Some of the money is in old French and Mexican coins, and two hundred years old.

The judiciary committee of the House of National Representatives has reported a bill for the construction, at some central point to be determined, a penitentiary to cost not over $500,000 for the confinement of United States prisoners.

Carlisle is spoken of as the man to fill Chief Justice Waite's position. Mr. Carlisle's feelings are not exactly known, and as he was offered the seat now occupied by Mr. Lamar, there is a probability that he would refuse.

ALMOST ANNIHILATES THE VILLAGE OF MINNESCAH.

PARDON OF AN OHIO COUNTERFEITER.

MORE BANK ABSCONDERS.

TWO NEWSPAPER MEN DEAD.

Measles in a Malignant Form—A Noted Detective's Death—Geo. N. Hawes Dies at the Age of Sixty-Five. His Apparent Death in '49.

Swept by a Cyclone. KANSAS CITY, March 27.—Word reached here last evening of the almost annihilation of Minnescah, a village in Klamath County, Kansas. The place has no telegraph office, and details are difficult to obtain. It appears that an all-day rain storm suddenly changed in the evening to a cyclone, which in an instant swept the place, leveling fifteen dwellings, five stores and two churches. Three people were killed and seventeen wounded.

A Counterfeiter Pardoned by the President.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.—The President has granted a pardon to David Morrison, to take effect April 17. He was convicted of aiding and assisting in making counterfeit money in the Southern Ohio District in April, 1886, and sentenced to six years in the penitentiary at Columbus. The President in granting the pardon says he does so on the recommendation of the officers concerned in his trial and conviction, and upon the statement of the Judge that the sentence was made severe upon a misapprehension as to the prisoner's previous record.

Gone With the People's Money.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 27.—The Chairman of the Board of Directors of the State National Bank publishes the following this morning: "The Directors of the State National Bank, having reason to believe that the President and Cashier of the bank have absconded with a large amount of assets, have determined to close up the doors and turn over all affairs to the proper officers of the United States Government. We are glad to be able to assure the public that the other banks in the city are not affected by this defection."

By order of the Directors. E. R. STAMPS, Chairman pro tem. The officers of the other banks in the city announced officially that the suspension does not affect their institutions.

Missappropriating Saving Funds.

WILLIAMSBURG, CONN., March 24.—A profound sensation has been made by the statement that H. F. Royce, treasurer of the Williamamatic Savings Institution, has misappropriated $150,000.

A Well Known Politician and Journalist Dead.

NEW YORK, March 27.—Ex-Lieutenant Governor William Dorsheimer, the publisher of the New York Star, died last night at Savannah, Georgia.

Death of a Paducah Newspaper Man. PADUCAH, KY., March 27.—Joel Shreveberg, for many years connected with Paducah papers, died this morning, aged forty-nine. He had been in feeble health for several years. He was very eccentric, but a man of wonderful fund of information and many talents. He was never married.

Over 100 Cases of Measles in Chattanooga. CHATTANOOGA, March 23.—James A. Atwell, of Smithville, says that town is one huge hospital. A most malignant form of measles is raging there, and there are at present over 100 cases. There have been thirty-one deaths in three weeks, and most of those who have recovered are marked for life.

A Secret Service Detective Dead.

NEW YORK, March 27.—Capt. Chas. N. Brackett, the noted chief of the Government Secret Service, died at his residence, No. 344 West 15th street, yesterday afternoon, in the fifty-sixth year of his age, of bronchial pneumonia, contracted through exposure to the great blizzard.

In His Coffin For The Last Time.

PARIS, KY., March 27.—George Nicholas Hawes died near Millersburg, this county, yesterday, aged 65 years. He was a son of the late Judge Richard Hawes, and brother of Gen. Maurice Hawes, of Covington. During the cholera in Paris in 1849, the deceased was ill with the disease and apparently died. He was placed in a coffin, all arrangements made for his burial, and as the undertaker was about to place the top on the coffin, Mr. Hawes came to life, and after sitting up in the box, stepped out, and since then had always been in good health.

Courtesy or Cowardice.

It has grown into a custom in the Kentucky Legislature for the members to defer to local representatives, and to support for instance, any bill relating to Louisville, merely because it is urged by representatives of this city, regardless of right, of justice, or of local opinion.

The effect is that local measures are not deliberated upon; they do not have the consideration of the Legislature, but fixed up in some back room by the lobbyists employed by contractors, election brokers, or corporations, the job is approved by the local representative, and it matters not how obnoxious it is, it is passed because other Senators and Representatives are unwilling to offend fellow members.

They term this courtesy, but it is either cowardice or corruption. The practice is contrary to the principle of representative government. In matters affecting Louisville the citizens of Louisville are entitled to the benefit of the wisdom and the experience of all the members of the Legislature. No man has a right to vote in accordance with the demands of another or on any plea of this kind. Our constitution is supposed to secure this deliberate action, this careful consideration, from every member for every measure.

But it secures nothing of the kind. Jobbers assume that if the local representatives can be won, the rest is easy. Consequently we are not governed by the Legislature, but by some ignorant autocrat who cracks his whip in the House, and the other Representatives vote as he demands, and as an excuse say it is courtesy.

Most of the corruption which has marked recent legislative sessions, arises from this abuse, from this surrender of independent action.

It is time to end it, for it is a menace to the continued ascendancy of the Democratic party. Every measure should be opposed or defended on its merits alone, regardless of the wishes of local Representatives. Louisville is a part of Kentucky; it is entitled to the best laws the whole Legislature can devise. It has not had these; instead it has been governed by the edicts of a small number of the members, who, by threats, have stifled discussion and prevented consideration.

If a bill is bad, oppose it; if it is good, support it, regardless of so-called courtesy. It is not courtesy. "Vote against my bill," said a little boss, "and I will vote against yours." And my bill usually, under such circumstances, covers a job.

We appeal to the Legislature for more wisdom, for more courage, for more independence in its work. We ask it to give every quarter of the State the benefits, not of government by the hired lobby, but government by the people. There are a number of measures before the Legislature vitally affecting the city of Louisville which should have the attention of all the members of the Legislature, and the action of that body should not be controlled by courtesy or cowardice. Vote as you think, and not as commanded by some interested party.—Courier-Journal.

Just Cause For Complaint.

(To the Editor of the Courier-Journal.) I want to thank you for your just and timely editorial in to-day's Courier-Journal, entitled "Courtesy or Cowardice." There is neither sense, justice, nor good policy in the custom which permits a local Representative to pass or defeat a bill as he may elect, wholly without regard to the merits of the measure. By the operation of this rule, as now adhered to by the Kentucky Legislature, every local bill is enacted or defeated at the will of a single Representative. The wisdom of ninety-nine Representatives is set at naught and silenced at the command of one.

But the unjust and injurious operation of this custom has a wider application than is given to it in your editorial. It not only secures the passage of vicious measures and defeats meritorious ones, but, in some cases, it enables one or two Representatives to dictate to and control the Democratic General Assembly of Kentucky in matters of serious importance to the State. A bill of which I have knowledge will serve as an illustration: A bill to amend the charter of one of the most prosperous cities in the Commonwealth has been pending before the Legislature about a month. The bill is entirely proper and just and ought to have been passed promptly. The interest and welfare of the people of the city in question demand its passage, and no reason, based on right and justice, can be offered in opposition to it. In addition to this its passage is earnestly desired by every Democratic voter in the city. They have petitioned the Legislature and clamorously appealed to it to pass the bill—yet their petition and appeal have not been heeded, because, forsooth, the Representative and Senator are Republicans, and are opposed to the bill on the ground that it would be of benefit to the Democratic party.

Suppose the situation in Kentucky were changed, and the Republicans held a majority in the Legislature, would they defeat a measure of local interest to their party because the Representative of the locality happened to be a Democrat? Frankfort, March 27. A. C.

SOCIALITIES.

Mack Trabee, of Pembroke, spent Wednesday in the city.

Miss Mary Brister, of Russellville, is visiting friends in the city.

J. Y. Cabanis, druggist of Trenton, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. T. G. Blakey, of Auburn, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Blakey.

Mr. Strother Banks and wife, of Trenton, are visiting Mrs. E. G. Sebree.

A. G. Boales has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., where he hopes to be benefited in health. He has been a great sufferer from rheumatism for several months.

Sunday Services at the Christian Church.

Preaching at 10:45 a. m., by the pastor, L. W. Welsh and at 7:30 p. m., by Rev. J. T. Barrow. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Young People's meeting at 6:15 p. m., at which an address will be given by Mr. Otho Lander. Public welcome to all of the above services.

Death of Mr. Jas. Bronaugh.

James Bronaugh, one among the oldest citizens in the county, died in the city at 5 o'clock, a. m., Wednesday, of erysipelas. He had been sick only a short while and was thought to be getting better until Tuesday when he grew rapidly worse, when death relieved him Wednesday morning. Deceased was 84 years old and was a pious, christian gentleman, liked by all who knew him and in the loss of him the community has been deprived of one of its best citizens, and his bereaved family have the sympathies of many friends who knew him and of his noble heart and righteous character.

Mr. Bronaugh was born in Louisa county, Virginia, and was united in marriage to Miss Isabella Hart, of the same county, when 25 years old. A few years afterwards they moved to this State, settling near where now stands the village of Casky, where they lived until 1867 when they moved to this city. Mrs. Bronaugh died in the year 1876. Of their seven children only two survive—a son and daughter.

The funeral was preached at the Baptist church yesterday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. J. N. Prestidge, and the remains interred in the City Cemetery, a large concourse of friends paying their last tribute to their beloved friend by accompanying his remains to their last resting place.

Such an affable man! I was glad we had met. For he made a short hour most pleasant. He spoke in a way I shall never forget. On questions concerning the present. His opinions they suited my own to a T. I regretted that hour had been so short. Then my coat by the button he took, and said he: "Are you carrying any insurance?" Apply to LOUG, GARNETT & Co.,

Wednesday a special jury was empaneled to try the case of the Commonwealth against Dan Warton, colored, charged with assault and battery in striking with an iron poker and badly wounding W. L. Bradley a few weeks ago. A large crowd of both whites and blacks collected to hear the evidence which was concluded at 12 o'clock. Immediately after dinner R. W. Henry spoke for the defense, making a most powerful effort to impress the jury that his client had acted in self-defense in committing the crime with which he was charged. At the conclusion of Mr. Henry's speech, C. H. Bush addressed the jury in behalf of the Commonwealth and his argument was convincing and to the point. He alluded to the defective law regarding the punishment of a prisoner charged with assault and battery, suggesting that there should in such cases as the one in hand be a severer penalty than was now attached, the present one being, on conviction, fine and imprisonment in the county jail, only. At the conclusion of his argument the indictment was handed the foreman of the jury and they retired to their room, and after remaining out an hour or more announced that they were unable to agree, whereupon the Judge discharged them, and the prisoner was returned to jail and his trial set for the next term of Circuit Court.

Rev. Dr. J. R. Graves, a well-known and distinguished minister, Editor of the Tennessee Baptist, of Memphis, will preach the first of a series of sermons, at the Baptist Church, next Sunday Morning, at 11 o'clock. Cordial invitation to the public.

Our facilities for turning out fine job work are unsurpassed in this section and we would respectfully invite those in need of letter heads, bill heads, envelopes, circulars, receipts, &c., to give us a call, promising to please the most fastidious, as to quality of material used, price charged and general get-up of same. Call in and see our samples of fine work.

Walter Moore and a younger brother had a difficulty with Morris Frasier, while working on the Butler road last Friday, which resulted in the latter being badly bunged about the body by the former. The parties are all colored. Tuesday the Moore brothers were brought before Esquire Younglove and after hearing the evidence pro and con they were each fined $5 and the costs, which they very readily and willingly contributed to the county's wealth.

Robt. D. Vance, of Henderson, was in the city Monday, feeling the pulse of his friends as to their choice of delegates from the second District to the St. Louis Convention. Bob has visited our city several times, and has many friends here who proffered him their influence provided Christian had no applicants. He will probably be the choice of Henderson county, and stands a good show to cast the vote for Grover.

Dr. Clarence Anderson left for Princeton this morning where he will locate for the practice of medicine and surgery. He recently returned from Cincinnati where he graduated with a number of honors, and leaves for Princeton amid the best wishes of a host of friends. Clarence is a gentleman in every sense of the word and we predict for him a bright future and would say to the good people of Princeton, and Caldwell county that no young man could come better recommended than he.

The Irene Worrell Company is filling its engagement here this week. Miss Worrell's singing and dancing is excellent and each one of the company plays his or her part well. They deserve large audiences which they have not been greeted with owing to the very inclement weather. Last night Bartley Campbell's "Matrimony" was presented. Saturday afternoon there will be a matinee. Those who enjoy a pleasant evening at the opera should not fail to attend the balance of the performances as they will be amply repaid by being highly entertained by this popular company.

Assa Caldwell, a four-year-old son of Mr. A. S. Caldwell, fell from a fence Monday afternoon and struck the small end of a whip staff through his jaw, making a painful wound. He was sitting on the fence with whip staff in hand when he fell on it, the end entering the jaw about half an inch back of the corner of the mouth and ranging backward. His parents were from home attending the funeral services of Mrs. Margaret McPherson, deceased, and were notified a few moments after the accident. They immediately sent for Dr. Dennis, who dressed the punctured part and the little fellow is now doing as well as could be expected for one so badly wounded.

W. K. L. A. Investigation.

THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE SUBMIT THEIR REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Report a Complimentary One.

The Special Committee appointed to visit the Western Lunatic Asylum for the purpose of examining the general condition of the Asylum, to investigate the charge of cruelty to one Hendricks, a lunatic, who escaped on June 18, 1887, and who was never thereafter heard from, as well as any other charges which might be presented to the committee, have submitted their report to the General Assembly, the same having been printed in pamphlet form.

The report is a complimentary one and reflects much credit upon the entire management. The committee reported that after a rigid, thorough and careful investigation, they found that the employees and officers were discharging their duties satisfactorily and faithfully. The main point to which their inspection was especially directed was the food, clothing, treatment and well-being of the inmates of the Asylum, as well as its financial management. They reported finding the food supplied plentiful, in sufficient variety, cleanly and well served; special attention being given to that given the sick and others who could not sit at the general table. They found the clothing furnished, for both male and female, of superior quality and respectable appearance. They were much pleased with the cleanly appearance of the bed-rooms, dining-room, sitting-rooms and halls, also with the manner of heating the whole building, the heating apparatus being sufficient to keep the building at a high temperature in the severest weather. Regarding the finances they reported them managed with intelligent economy and with a degree of faithfulness to the interest of the Commonwealth. Every ward pertaining to the Institution, both white and colored, was found to be in excellent condition. It having been charged that one Robert Hendricks, a lunatic, sent from Franklin, Simpson county, had been cruelly treated and foully dealt with, by the employees of the Asylum, a full and thorough examination concerning said charges was made, the Superintendent, Dr. Jas. Rodman, the officers and employees all manifesting, not only a desire, but a determination to have the matter fully put forth as the proof warranted, and the committee failed to develop any fact to sustain said charge, the proof showing that Hendricks was kindly treated, receiving all the medical attention necessary from the time he was received up to 1 o'clock, p. m., on the day he eloped, and that he was in better mental as well as physical condition at the time of his elopement than at any time since his reception, the proof further showing that he was accorded the privilege of going to spring several hundred yards from the Asylum for water, and on this occasion took advantage of the opportunity to escape, and a diligent search failed to elicit him whereabouts, nor has he ever been heard from since.

The water supply obtained from springs and cisterns while sufficient under ordinary circumstances was reported to the committee as being insufficient in case of drouth, and after a conference with the Board of Commissioners and Superintendent an act was prepared authorizing said Board to use any surplus money they have to that end. Finding also that the general law in regard to dismissal of patients from the Asylum should be amended, they prepared an act looking to that end, which will meet the approval of the management of all the Asylums in the State, and the committee will insist upon the passage of both acts. No appropriation is asked in either.

KELLY.

KELLY, Ky., Mar. 28.—This rainy disagreeable weather everything is dull and news items are scarce and hard to get.

Mr. Thos. A. Marcum, an aged and respected citizen of the Hall's Chapel neighborhood, died on last Friday and his wife at last accounts was very sick and considered hopeless. Thus when our battle is fought and our race is run do we pass away and come no more.

It is something new in the line of thieves when it comes to stealing the canvasing from a tobacco plant bed; yet such has been the case recently in this vicinity. Esq. J. A. Boyd and Mrs. Mary Underwood have been the sufferers in this respect. It is hard to conceive of more contemptible and mean petty stealing than this.

Sanford Henry, colored, familiarly known as "Old Rocky," was arrested by John Rule, a United States Deputy Marshal, Tuesday afternoon, and carried before United Commissioner Landes for an examining trial. He is charged with retailing liquor in this city without a government license. The evidence was thought sufficient to hold him over and he was sent on to the United States Grand Jury, which meets in Louisville in October next. Wednesday morning the Marshal also arrested Harry Coleman, colored, charged with a similar offense. He was also held over, in the sum of $200. He furnished the required bond and was released. Marshal Rule will leave with Sanford Henry for Louisville to-morrow.

BELLEVIEW.

As Bugge has failed from some cause; possibly ennu, to give you our little items of news I will attempt not to fill but to occupy this place.

Mr. Charlie Anderson, of Hopkinsville, is spending the week with his friend, J. Parrish Meacham.

Miss Carrie Cox is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. S. McGehee, at Longview.

Mr. T. C. Rawlins made a business trip to Clarksville, Tuesday.

Miss Lucie Owen is visiting relatives in Hopkinsville.

Mrs. A. W. Meacham returned home Monday, after a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. T. E. Bartley, of Hopkinsville.

Miss Nannie Wilson came over to attend the Gracey Ball. She was the guest of Miss Carrie Cox of this place.

Miss Kate Guthrie, of Gracey, is teaching the school at Old Bellevue.

Dr. E. R. Cullom has torn down his residence in Old Bellevue, and is building a neat little cottage in Gracey.

Mr. J. W. McGehee, our popular and handsome little merchant, will leave for the East in a few days.

Should anything else of interest transpire, I will from time to time chronicle it, but for the present; enough.

Yours Truly, PSYCHE.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience, have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly,

L. L. GORSUCH, M. D., Office, 215 Summit St.

We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

The troubles of Postmaster Judd, of Chicago, are by no means at an end, and the papers say that mistakes and losses have ceased to be occasional but are hourly. Postmaster General Dickinson, says, he is unable to state the cause of the trouble, but that the office is not working properly, and that he intends to have it thoroughly investigated. The entire force seem to have fallen into a rut of shiftness and delay.
